

Fillmore to POLK ST.

TOUR 7

2 3 22 31 38 Buses

From downtown, take the 38 or 38 L Geary bus on Market Street (before Market & Geary) or on Geary Blvd. at Union Square. Get off at Geary & Fillmore Street.

Helen Branham
Urban Solutions

“ The Fillmore District is an entertainment destination. From its African American community, there’s jazz and blues clubs, from the Japanese community, there’s California rolls and karaoke, and from the early days of rock and roll, there’s the legendary live music venue - The Fillmore.”

Duncan Ley
Tonic

“ If you want to know where it’s really happening for locals, get yourself down to Polk. From the Civic Center to Russian Hill, Polk offers something for every type of drinker: yuppie bars, dive bars, rocker bars, a piano bar, and the most hopping gay scene outside of the Castro.”

POLK ST. to 6th ST.

TOUR 8

10 19 41 45 47 49 Buses

From downtown, board the J, K, L, M, N or T Metro (dir: outbound) at Embarcadero, Montgomery or Powell MUNI Stations. Get off at Civic Center station. Walk one block to Larkin St. Take 19 Polk bus. Get off at Polk & Pacific St.

Helene Sautou
Urban Solutions

“ Want to dine, drink & dance like the locals in-the-know do? If so, walk a block past the Westfield mall on Market Street and grab a bite at one of the several restaurants along Sixth Street where you will discover many hidden gems.”

6th Street

TOUR 1

POWELL BART Station POWELL MUNI Station
14 Bus F Streetcar

From downtown, walk on Market Street (dir: away from Ferry Building) to 6th Street.

NOE VALLEY to FILLMORE

TOUR 6

24 35 48 Buses J Metro

From downtown, board the J Metro (dir: Balboa Park) at Embarcadero, Montgomery or Powell MUNI Stations and get off at 24th & Church Street stop.

Dani Sheehan-Meyer
Cliche Noe Gifts + Home

“ Located in the heart of San Francisco (the exact center is located at 20th and Douglas), this charming neighborhood, nestled between Douglas and Diablos along 24th Street, and on Church Street, down to 30th Street, features a wonderful mix of unique boutiques, restaurants and bars.”

INTO THE 'HOODS

Polk Street

Fillmore

6th Street

Mission Bay

Dogpatch

Mission Creek

Noe Valley

Bayview

Check out our site and head into the 'hoods

Joan Robins
The Ramp

“ Mission Bay has undergone a major transformation in recent years with UCSF stationing their research and medical facilities on land that was previously derelict. New restaurants and cafes have sprung up in the area as well, along with the revitalization of beautiful Mission Creek Park, which overlooks ATT Park, home of the San Francisco Giants.”

Mission Bay

TOUR 2

SF STATION CALTRAIN Station
19 30 45 47 Buses N T Metro

From downtown, board T Metro (dir: Suncitydale) at Embarcadero, Montgomery or Powell MUNI Stations and get off at 2nd & King Station.

MISSION CRK. to NOE VALLEY

TOUR 5

16TH ST. BART Station
12 22 27 33 Buses

From downtown, board BART train (dir: Daly City, S.F. Intl. Airport or Millbrae) at Embarcadero, Montgomery or Powell Stations. Exit at 16th St. Mission Station. Take 22 bus heading east on 16th St. Get off at 16th and Bryant St.

Candace Combs
In-Symmetry

“ Our neighborhood is rich with history and culture. Mission Creek is located within the Mission and its boundaries are Potrero Avenue to Capp Street and Mariposa to 23rd Street. We have an amazing selection of restaurants, cafes and bars as well as spas and fitness centers.”

Bayview

TOUR 4

19 23 24 44 54 Buses T Metro

From downtown, board the T Metro (dir: Suncitydale) at Embarcadero, Montgomery or Powell MUNI Stations. Get off at Hudson/Innes Station.

Alka Joshi
BRITE Business Alliance

“ Bayview Hunters Point is a rich neighborhood—rich in diversity, culture, sunshine, green spaces, and a phenomenal view of the San Francisco Bay. Here you’ll find tattooed hipsters, construction workers, non-profit leaders, and avid cyclists working side by side to make our neighborhood more vibrant, safe, and fun for families.”

Dogpatch

TOUR 3

22ND ST. CALTRAIN Station
22 48 Buses T Metro

From downtown, board T Metro (dir: Suncitydale) at Embarcadero, Montgomery or Powell MUNI Stations and get off at 20th Street Station.